Jewish Family Service of New Mexico Receives Grant for Seniors Aging Well At Home Program

Albuquerque, New Mexico – Jewish Family Service of New Mexico announced today that it has received a $75,000 Daniels Fund grant to support its Aging Well At Home Program for seniors.

Jewish Family Service, established in 1985, has a rich tradition of providing assistance to those in need so they can overcome their challenges. As the human service arm of the Jewish community, they are guided by the value of tikkun olam, repairing the world. Services are available to people from all religious backgrounds, old and young, urban and rural. Their programs help people in Albuquerque, Rio Rancho, Santa Fe, Ft. Sumner, and Zuni Pueblo.

“The Daniels Fund grant will enable our Aging Well At Home Program to provide service to a greater number of seniors requesting in-home services such as transportation, meals, and housekeeping, which allows them to continue living independently,” said Michael Gemme, Executive Director.

Bill Daniels, a pioneer in cable television known for his kindness and generosity to those in need, established the Daniels Fund to provide grants and scholarships in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. For more information, please visit www.danielsfund.org.

The Daniels Fund grant will also allow Jewish Family Service to increase the level of safety in their homes for 100% of seniors participating in the Aging Well At Home Program.
